LAGERS

Lane 4 Vienna Lager

TASTING NOTES: Toasty, Clean Maltiness, Elegant | STATS: 5.3% ABV, 20 IBU
The ferry waits for no one, yet everyone waits for the ferry. Named after the old ferry lane designated for Friday Harbor passengers, Lane 4 Vienna Lager is the perfect beer to sip while waiting for the next boat. This Vienna Lager offers a soft and smooth mouthfeel with a slightly toasty malt character and a dry finish.

Hunker Down Dunkel

TASTING NOTES: Rich, Malt Balanced, High Drinkability | STATS: 5.4% ABV, 20 IBU
When the last of the summer visitors board the ferry, it's time to hunker down with this Fall and Winter seasonal dunkel. This traditional German lager has a definitive toasted, yet slightly sweet character, full of rich malt character balanced with a clean, moderately dry finish.

ALES

Afterglow Golden Ale

TASTING NOTES: Light, Thirst Quenching, Highly Sessionable
STATS: 4.5% ABV, 25 IBU
Named for the famous Mausoleum near Roche Harbor, Afterglow Golden Ale illuminates island history while refreshing the palate with a light body and dry finish. A touch of hop character rounds out this easy drinking session beer.

Outer Island IPA

TASTING NOTES: Hop Forward, Refreshing | STATS: 6.3% ABV, 65 IBU
As unique and distinctive as the 124 remote San Juan Islands reachable only by private boat, Outer Island IPA delivers a hop-heavy aroma, bursting with melon and apricot, followed by a palate-cleansing dry finish that leaves you longing for more.

Black Boar Porter

TASTING NOTES: Chocolate & Coffee Notes, Slight Caramel, Highly Sessionable
STATS: 4.5% ABV, 20 IBU
Named for the San Juan's Pig War of the mid-1800s where the only casualty happened to be a British pig—Black Boar Porter is a traditional English Porter characterized by its mild roast, caramel sweetness, and a slightly creamy mouthfeel.

Bull Kelp ESB

TASTING NOTES: Biscuity, Slight Toffee, High Drinkability | STATS: 5.5% ABV, 35 IBU
Named for the iconic Pacific Northwest seaweed found in subtidal patches and along beaches, Bull Kelp ESB balances toffee notes with warm biscuit malt character and finishes with a touch of hop bitterness. You can't help, but have another Bull Kelp.

Powers Out Stout

TASTING NOTES: Velvety, Roasty, Full-Bodied | STATS: 5.6% ABV, 28 IBU
Living on a remote island, lights out is a way of life. Embrace the island life with Power's Out Stout—a dark and delicious traditional English Oatmeal Stout. Cozy up to a pint of this full-bodied stout with notes of chocolate and coffee.
